This Act applies to Special Economic Zones established in Antigua and Barbuda.

PART II

PURPOSE, POLICY AND STRATEGY OF SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES

5. Purpose of Special Economic Zones

(1) A Special Economic Zone is an economic development tool for the promotion of economic growth by using support measures to attract targeted foreign and domestic investments and technology.

(2) The purpose of establishing Special Economic Zones includes—

- (a) facilitating the development of a medium and small size industrial complex, having strategic national economic advantage for targeted investments and industries in the manufacturing sector and tradable services;
- (b) developing infrastructure required to support the development of targeted industrial activities;
- (c) attracting foreign and domestic direct investment;
- (d) providing the location for the establishment of targeted investments;
- (e) promoting integration with local industry and increasing value-added production;
- (f) creating decent employment and other economic and social benefits in the area in which it is located, including the broadening of economic participation by promoting small, and medium enterprises and promoting skills and technology transfer; and
- (g) the generation of new and innovative economic activities.

(3) For the purpose of this section, “targeted foreign and domestic investments” include investments in support of government’s economic and industrial development policies.

6. Special Economic Zones policy

The Minister may determine policy for the designation, promotion, development, operation and management of Special Economic Zones after consultation with the Advisory Board and may, when necessary, review such policy.

7. Special Economic Zones strategy

(1) The Minister may determine a Special Economic Zones strategy after consultation with the Advisory Board and may, when necessary, review such strategy.

(2) The strategy contemplated in subsection (1) must address the designation of Special Economic Zones that will best support small and medium size industries and tradable services and economic growth strategies.

PART III

SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES ADVISORY BOARD

8. Establishment of Special Economic Zones Advisory Board

(1) The Special Economic Zones Advisory Board is hereby established.

(2) The Minister shall appoint not more than 7 persons as members of the Advisory Board, consisting of—

(a) one person representing the Inland Revenue Department;

(b) one person representing the Customs Department;

(c) two persons representing the holder of a Special Economic Zone licence;

 - (iii) the report of the Auditors appointed under subsection (1) (c) on those statements.

(2) The annual report and financial statements referred to in subsection (1) must fairly present the state of affairs of that Special Economic Zone entity and its performance against predetermined objectives for the financial year concerned.

PART VI

SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONE OPERATOR

30. Special Economic Zone Operator

(1) A Special Economic Zone Committee must follow a fair, equitable, transparent, competitive and cost-effective procurement process, when appointing an operator to develop, operate and manage that Special Economic Zone entity.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), only a Special Economic Zone entity incorporated or registered under the laws of Antigua and Barbuda as a private entity, a public-private partnership or a public entity may develop and operate in the Special Economic Zone concerned.

31. Application for Special Economic Zone operator permit

(1) A Special Economic Zone may only be developed, operated and managed by a person who holds a Special Economic Zone operator permit issued in terms of this section.

(2) Any person or entity appointed by a Special Economic Zone Committee to develop, operate and manage a Special Economic Zone entity in terms of this section must apply to the Minister for a Special Economic Zone operator permit in the form and manner prescribed by regulation.

(3) The Special Economic Zone Advisory Board—

(a) must consider the application;

(b) may require an applicant to supply additional information necessary to consider the application;

(c) may request an applicant to appear before it for the purpose of making an oral representation at the applicant's expense;

(d) may require any interested party, including an organ of state, affected by such application to comment on the application in writing; and

(e) must recommend to the Minister whether or not the applicant is eligible for an operator permit.

(4) The Minister may, after considering the recommendation of the Advisory Board and with the approval of the Cabinet issue a person with an operator permit, with or without conditions.

- (5) The Minister may make regulations regarding—
- (a) the procedure and time periods applicable to applications for operator permits; and
 - (b) the information that must be provided in any application for an operator permit.

32. Requirements for application for Special Economic Zone operator permit

- (1) An applicant for an operator permit must—
- (a) be a person appointed by a Special Economic Zone Committee to develop, operate and manage that Special Economic Zone in terms of section 30;
 - (b) be a person or entity incorporated or registered as a company in Antigua and Barbuda;
 - (c) have sufficient financial resources and expertise to develop, operate and manage a Special Economic Zone; and
 - (d) comply with such other criteria and requirements as may be prescribed.
- (2) The Minister may make regulations regarding—
- (a) additional criteria for applications for operator permit;
 - (b) any condition that may be imposed on operator permit, including conditions relating to businesses that may be operated in Special Economic Zones;
 - (c) any measure to promote the effective monitoring of the conditions contained in operator permit; and
 - (d) any other matter necessary to facilitate the issuing of an operator permit.

33. Special Economic Zone operator permit

Before issuing an operator permit in terms of section 31(4), the Minister must, on the recommendation of the Advisory Board, be satisfied that the written agreement between the Special Economic Zone Committee and the operator adequately provides for the duties, terms and conditions for the development, operation and management of that Special Economic Zone by the operator, including—

- (a) the requirements and timetable for the planning, construction, supply of infrastructure and utilities within that Special Economic Zone;
- (b) the security measures that the operator must take and maintain in or around a customs controlled area defined in section 2 of the Customs Control and Management Act, 2013, (Act No. 3 of 2013);
- (c) the facilities that the operator must provide in order to enable the Advisory Board or a Special Economic Zone Committee, as the case may be, to exercise its functions within that Special Economic Zone; and
- (d) the construction timetable and milestone schedule for that Special Economic Zone permit.

34. Assignment of Special Economic Zone operator permit

(1) An operator may, subject to section 31(1), assign an operator permit to another person, if such other person—

- (a) applies to the Minister for an assignment in terms of the provisions of this section; and
- (b) satisfies the requirements for an operator permit in terms of this Part.

(2) The assignee must in its application clearly stipulate any changes to the original development, business and operating plan of the Special Economic Zone in question.
